ANOTHER DAY TO CHE-FA

Grand Jury Witnesses Keeping Out of the Way.

The Territorial grand jury, with Attorney General Peters in attendance, continued to worry the che-fa players yesterday, and continued to keep Anin cooling his heels and ventilating his poncee coat in the corridor. There were a number of witnesses examined, among them District Magistrate Whitney, who is said to have been asked as to the number of che-fa cases tried in his court. There is thought to be a certain significance in this line of examination. Judge Whitney told the jury that very few of his cases were che-fa cases, so it is said.

The High Sheriff is having a lot of trouble in getting che-fa agents as witnesses, and it is believed that the bankers are seeing to it that these small fry, who are all known, are kept out of the way.

In this connection, it was reported yesterday, that Ah On, late of the police force and later of some note in gambling circles, sailed away on the Mongolia for China. He is said to have a position there, and to have gone to take it, but it is remarkable that he should have found the opening at this particular time. Of course he is out of the reach of the Territorial grand jury on the high seas—but the men who are responsible for his going are not and so there may be doings along a line that has not been followed yet by the jury.

It is confidently thought that the grand jury will be ready to move to the indictment stage of its investigations by about Thursday of this week. Indeed, those in the know predicted that indictments would be returned last week, but there were various hitches—and the jury was too busy having fun with Anin to reach any other matter as fully as a thing should be reached which involves the indictment of an accused man. So the indictments were carried over. Those gentlemen who are living above volcanoes, and know it, may therefore expect eruptions most any time.

H. A. P. CARTER ESTATE.
The tenth annual account of the guardian in the matter of the Estate of H. A. P. Carter has been filed. Governor George R. Carter is the guardian. The latter charges himself with $111,342.59; balance of principal invested, $110,101; balance of principal undistributed, $184,159. He also charges himself with the several amounts received on account of income, $14,735.72.

The amount of personal property according to inventory of last account, $98,973.35. The balance of the income received during the year in excess of disbursements was $947.67. The inventory shows that the estate has in bonds: $20,000, Oohala; $6000, Kahuku; $3500, Oahu Ry.; $2000, Pala Plantation; $12,000 California Beet Sugar & Refining Co.; $2500, Waiwala Agr. Co. Notes—F. J. Lowrey, collateral 100 shares Oahu Sugar; $6000; J. P. Cooke, collateral 400 shares Alexander & Baldwin, $24,000.

Mortgages—A. J. Lopes, $5000.

FOUNDED IN HONOUR.
No doubt you have seen in the papers such announcements as this concerning some medicine or other: "If, on trial, you write that this medicine has done you no good we will refund your money."—Now, we have never had reason to speak in that way concerning the remedy named in this article. In a trade extending throughout the world, nobody has ever complained that our medicine has failed, or asked for the return of his money. The public never grumbles at honestly and skillfully made bread, or at a medicine which really and actually does what it was made to do. The foundations of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION are laid in sincerity and honour, the knowledge of which on the part of the people explains its popularity and success. There is nothing to disguise or conceal. It was not dreamed out, or discovered by accident; it was studied out, on the solid principles of applied medical science. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. This remedy is praised by all who have employed it in any of the diseases it is recommended to relieve and cure, and is effective from the first dose. In Anemia, Scrofula, Nervous and General Debility, Influenza, La Grippe, and Throat and Lung Troubles, it is a specific. Dr. Thos. Hunt Stucky says: "The continued use of it in my practice, convinces me that it is the most palatable, least nauseating, and best preparation now on the market." You can take it with the assurance of getting well. One bottle proves its intrinsic value. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists everywhere.

Hilo R. R. Co. vs. Cecil Brown and H. L. Williams. has been made by Deputy Sheriff Kalakalela. The plaintiff alleges that the above defendants with F. W. Hankey were engaged in a partnership business on Hawaii under the firm name of H. L. Williams & Co. On February 6, 1906, Hankey withdrew from the firm, and the others assumed the debts of the firm. The Railroad Co. avers it carried certain goods for the firm the charges on which were $530.68, no part of which has been paid. The company sues for the total amount.

WENT TO THE ARCTIC.
Return of summons in the divorce action of Malla McCandless vs. John McCandless has been made by Deputy Sheriff Kalakalela who states the libellee is not within the Territory. He states that information was given him that McCandless left the Territory about ten years ago on a whaling ship bound for the Arctic ocean and has not been heard from since.

COURT NOTES.
Argument on the demurrer of the defendant in the suit of the Seattle Brewing and Malt Company vs. Territorial Treasurer Campbell for the recovery of $750, paid as a license fee as a foreign corporation, which plaintiff claims it is not, was heard before the Supreme Court yesterday morning.

J. Castle Ridgway and Thos. Ridgway, attorneys of Hilo, lost their case in the Circuit Court yesterday against Dr. Geo. Herbert, Dr. Humphreys and Dr. St. D. G. Walters. Judge Lindsay decided that the $25 which the lawyers received for making a motion in court for a fee of $600 for Dr. Humphreys, was sufficient. The lawyers wanted $50.

L. L. McCandless yesterday morning filed his answer in the suit of the United States vs. the local "Beef Trust," alleging that he was not in the trust, although he admits he is in the cattle business. McCandless says he is in "free and unrestrained competition with the other producers of, and dealers in, beef."

Mrs. Fonseca, who was acquitted in the Circuit Court of the charge of keeping a disorderly house, presented a memorandum to George Hubbell, the court officer, yesterday, as follows: "Gin, tray, glasses, jimjon." These articles were used by the prosecution as evidence against Mrs. Fonseca, and having come out of the court victorious she wants her property back.

The following special venire was issued yesterday to complete the jury in the Brown vs. Spreckels Bros. case: Gerald Hughes, Ernest Kopke, George W. Parr, Thomas Winslow, George H. Angus, John H. Drew, Wm. B. Jones, Wm. Abe, A. C. Dowsett, Thomas Wilson, Isiah Pahoe, Frank Atherton, A. G. Kannegeisser, W. O. Barnhardt, S. Mapu, Louis Marks, Henry W. Doane, Wentworth M. Buchanan, D. G. Jaeger, Chas. F. Merrifield, Henry Foster, J. K. Kapua, D. O. Sherman, Chas. Spencer, S. W. Kallieha and George Landon. The jury finally selected comprises the following: H. P. Benson, Wm. Buckle, George Fuller, F. W. Chase, F. C. Atherton, A. M. Mellis, Percy Lishman, Geo. H. Cowan, J. M. Mitchell, Jas. E. Jaeger, C. H. Pfeiffer and H. W. Doane.

ONE CHANGE IN HACKFELD
"I have returned to Honolulu somewhat earlier than I had expected to," said Mr. J. F. Hackfeld, who was found in his office yesterday afternoon, "owing to the very sad and sudden death of my friend and business associate, Mr. H. Alexander Isenberg. His loss is severely felt by all of us, and is brought home to me particularly with great force at the present time because it is here in Honolulu that I worked with him for many years, and where during my former visits I had the privilege of enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Isenberg."

"No particular changes will take place in our firm. The business will continue to be managed by our local directors, who have been our trusted employees for many years, and in whose integrity I, and I believe also our business friends, have the fullest confidence. A new vice-president had, of course, to be elected in place of Mr. Isenberg, and Mr. P. Potenhauer has been appointed to that office. The officers of the corporation now are: J. F. Hackfeld, president; W. Potenhauer, vice-president; F. Klamp, director; George Rodiek, director; H. P. Schultz, treasurer; F. W. Klebahn, secretary, and F. Klamp, auditor."

"As regards the present condition of the sugar market, I regret not to be able to make a favorable report. The last beet crop has been very large, and the increase in the consumption of sugar in Europe and America since September last has so far been only a limited one. We must, therefore, expect low prices for some time. A great deal will depend upon the amount of land which will be cultivated for beets next spring, and on weather conditions in Europe next summer and autumn."

"It is hoped that the present low price of sugar may induce the beet growers to reduce their intended sowings to a considerable extent, but nothing definite will be known in regard to this until the end of next April."

ADVICE FROM HER LAWYER.
Timothy Coffin, who was prominent at the Bristol County Bar half a century ago, once secured the acquittal of an old Irish woman accused of stealing a piece of pork. As she was leaving the court-room she put her hand to her mouth, and in an audible whisper, said:
"Mr. Coffin, what'll I do with the pork?"
Quickly came the retort: "Eat it, you fool, the judge says you didn't steal it!"—Boston Herald.

DOES THIS FOOL THE BABY?
The wife of one of our gentlemen friends makes him wear tucks in his night gown, trimmed with pink ribbon, so that the baby won't know the difference when he walks the floor with it at night.—Cavalier (N. D.) Republican.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Investigates the Case of Mayall and Others.

The Federal Grand Jury was in session yesterday forenoon, but took the afternoon off. Among the matters before that body was the case of O. Mayall, station agent at Waiwala, charged with a violation of the Edmunds Act, the wife of a prominent Japanese resident there being named. Among witnesses to testify were Dr. Hubert Wood of Waiwala plantation, St. Clair Bidgood, manager of the Haleiwa Hotel, Deputy Sheriff Cox and others.

The books of the notes were produced to show that Mayall and the lady in question had meals at the hotel, the lady paying most of the bills. David Wahine, charged with the larceny of cartridges from the rifle range, which he is alleged to have sold, together with the cases of a number of Porto Ricans charged with bigamy, and that of Waikoloa, the Haleiwa postmaster charged with embezzling $227 of Uncle Sam's postal funds, were inquired into.
